A chairde,

37 years ago, a group of dedicated community activists had the vision of developing and showcasing our community's talent, resilience, determination, and love for arts and culture, through a community festival. Their ambition and determination was truly ground-breaking, from what started out as a small scale festival of events has grown over the last 37 years into an internationally recognised and celebrated world class festival, welcoming in excess of 100,000 visitors every year to West Belfast.

Everything from pop-up theatre, children's events, concerts, sport, discussions, debates, visual arts, tours and walks, literature readings, film screenings, health and wellbeing events and so much more can be found during Féile in what is proudly the largest community festival and summer school in Ireland! Whether you are new to arts and cultural events, a regular attender, or simply haven't had the chance to experience these events over recent years, I encourage you to get out and about, immerse yourself in this year's programme and experience over 600 events in over 50 venues right across Belfast. The atmosphere and sense of community spirit at Féile is truly unmatched. I promise, you won't be disappointed!

This year is also particularly significant as after more than a quarter of a century leading unforgettable tours of Belfast City Cemetery, this summer marks the final time Tom Hartley will guide Féile audiences through the graves and stories that have shaped our city. One of the original architects of Féile's resounding growth and success, Tom's guidance, leadership, stories and tours have been a cornerstone of the festival and although we know he won't be a stranger, his presence on tours will be truly missed. On behalf of the staff, board, volunteers, and the wider Féile community, go raibh míle maith agat, Tom.

A heartfelt go raibh míle maith agaibh must also go to our fantastic staff and volunteer committee teams, who have worked tirelessly to put this years' festival together.

Finally, thank you also to our local community, our key partners, funders, sponsors, and stakeholders for your continued support over the past 37 years. Our promise as always is to stay ambitious, to lead with creativity and courage, and to continue showcasing all that is great about West Belfast. Our 2025 Festival Programme promises to be one to remember. We look forward to seeing old friends, making new ones, and welcoming visitors from all over the world. Bigí linn!

Kevin Gamble, Director, Féile an Phobail

A chairde,

37 bliain ó shin, bhí fís ag grúpa gníomhaithe pobail díograiseacha tallann, teacht aniar, diongbháilteacht ár bpobail a fhorbairt agus a léiriú, agus an grá do na healaíona agus do chultúr a léiriú trí fhéile pobail. Bhí a n-uaillmhianta fíorcheannródaíoch. Thosaigh sí amach mar fhéile bheag imeachtaí ach thar 37 bliain, d'fhás sí ina féile den chéad scoth a bhfuil clú idirnáisiúnta aici, a cheiliúrtar ar fud an domhain agus a chuireann fáilte roimh bhreis agus 100,000 cuairteoir go hIarthar Bhéal Feirste gach bliain.

Beidh gach rud ó phreabamharclannaíocht, imeachtaí do pháistí, ceolchoirmeacha, spóirt, caibidlí, díospóireachtaí, amharc-ealaíona, turais agus siúlóidí, léamha litríochta, léiriú scannán, imeachtaí sláinte agus folláine agus i bhfad níos mó ar siúl i rith Féile, an fhéile pobail agus an scoil samhraidh is mó in Éirinn! Mar sin, más nó munar rudaí nua daoibh iad na himeachtaí ealaíon agus cultúrtha, nó má chaill sibh an deis le dul chuig na himeachtaí le blianta déanacha anuas, spreagaim sibh le dul amach i measc ár bpobail, le páirt dhíreach a ghlacadh in imeachtaí chlár na féile i mbliana, mar beidh breis agus 600 imeacht ar siúl i mbreis agus 50 áit ar fud Bhéal Feirste. Níl sárú an atmaisféir agus mheon an phobail ag Féile. Geallaim daoibh nach mbeidh díomá oraibh!

Bliain nach beag is ea í seo mar i ndiaidh níos mó ná ceathrú céid ag déanamh turas dodhearmadta de Reilig Cathrach Bhéal Feirste, seo an samhradh agus an bhliain dheireanach a bheidh Tom Hartley ag treorú daoine thart ar na huaigheanna agus ag insint scéalta a raibh tionchar acu ar ár gcathair. Tá sé ar dhuine de na bunúdair taobh thiar d'fhás agus de rath thar barr Féile. Bhí treoir, ceannaireacht, scéalta agus turais Tom ina gcuid lárnach den fhéile agus cé go bhfuil a fhios againn nach mbeidh sé ina strainséir, crónófar a láithreacht ar na turais go mór. Ar son na foirne, an bhoird, na saorálaithe agus ghnáthphobal Féile, go raibh míle maith agat a Tom.

Ba mhaith liom buíochas mór ó chroí a ghabháil lenár bhfoireann agus lenár bhfoirne coiste saorálaithe iontacha, a d'oibrigh gan stad gan staonadh leis an fhéile seo a chur le chéile i mbliana.

Faoi dheireadh, ba mhaith liom buíochas a ghabháil fosta lenár bpobal áitiúil, lenár bpríomhpháirtnéirí, lenár maoinitheoirí, lenár n-urraitheoirí agus lenár bpáirtithe leasmhara as tacaíocht a thabhairt do Féile le 37 bliain anuas. Tugann muid gealltanas go leanfaidh muid ar aghaidh le bheith uaillmhianach, ceannródaíoch, go spreagfaidh muid daoine le cruthaitheacht agus le misneach i gcónaí, agus gach rud a bhíonn iontach faoi Iarthar Bhéal Feirste a thaispeáint.

Geallaim nach ndéanfar dearmad ar Chlár Féile 2025 s'againne choíche. Tá muid ag súil le seanchairde a fheiceáil arís, cairdeas nua a dhéanamh, agus fáilte a chur roimh chuairteoirí ó fud fad an domhain.

Kevin Gamble, Stiúrthóir, Féile an Phobail

AS THE ONLY UNESCO CITY OF MUSIC ON THE ISLAND OF IRELAND, WE TAKE GREAT PRIDE IN OUR MUSICAL HERITAGE. FÉILE AN PHOBAIL HIGHLIGHTS AND SUPPORTS THE VERY BEST IN TRADITIONAL MUSIC AND SONG – SOMETHING THAT WE ARE PARTICULARLY EXCITED ABOUT IN THE LEAD-UP TO OUR CITY HOSTING FLEADH CHEOIL NA HÉIREANN IN AUGUST 2026.

MAR AN T-AON CHATHAIR CHEOIL EOECNA AMHÁIN AR OILEÁN NA HÉIREANN, TÁ AN-BHRÓD ORAINN AS ÁR N-OIDHREACHT CHEOIL. TARRAINGÍONN FÉILE AN PHOBAIL AIRD AR AGUS TACAÍONN SÍ LE SCOTH AN CHEOIL AGUS NA HAMHRÁNAÍOCHTA TRAIDISIÚNTA. SIN RUDAÍ A BHFUIL MUID AG SÚIL GO MÓR LEO SA TRÉIMHSE SULA MBEIDH AN CHATHAIR AG ÓSTÁIL FLEADH CHEOIL NA HÉIREANN I MÍ LÚNASA 2026.

Belfast City Council is delighted to once again to support Féile an Phobail, in this, its 37th year.

The landmark August festival is Ireland’s biggest community arts celebration, attracting and introducing a diverse range of people to our city’s extensive culture and the arts offering.

Belfast’s vibrant festival scene is an important part of our cultural strategy, A City Imagining 2020-2030. Looking at the impact of culture in the mid-way point of this 10-year strategy, audience surveys are also reinforcing the positive impact of culture and arts on our social cohesion and wellbeing.

And Féile an Phobail is a great example of how culture can inspire and connect our communities. It’s an inclusive and accessible festival with something for everyone to enjoy – residents and visitors alike.

As the only UNESCO City of Music on the island of Ireland, we take great pride in our musical heritage. Féile an Phobail highlights and supports the very best in traditional music and song – something that we are particularly excited about in the lead-up to our city hosting Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann in August 2026.

Such festivals play a key role in helping to deliver our UNESCO City of Music ambition of attracting thousands of people of all ages and backgrounds to enjoy gigs both large and small.

But this is a festival that offers so much more than music – with tours, talks, debates, visual arts, sport, literature, craft and film, there’s something for everyone to enjoy!

I hope you enjoy Féile 37 and I’d like to wish everyone involved – not forgetting all the amazing volunteers – the very best of luck.

Lord Mayor of Belfast, Councillor Tracy Kelly

Tá lúcháir ar Chomhairle Cathrach Bhéal Feirste a tacaíocht a thabhairt arís do Féile an Phobail agus í ag ceiliúradh a 37ú bliain ar an saol.

Is í an ceiliúradh ealaíon pobail is mó in Éirinn í an fhéile seo i mí Lúnasa, a mheallann réimse éagsúil daoine chuig imeachtaí cultúir agus ealaíon an-mhóir ár gcathrach.

Tá saol spleodrach féile Bhéal Feirste mar chuid bharrthábhachtach dár straitéis chultúrtha, A City Imagining 2020-2030. Ag breathnú ar thionchar an chultúir leathbhealaigh tríd an stratéis 10 mbliana seo, tá suirbhéanna an lucht féachana ag treisiú tionchar dearfach an chultúir agus na n-ealaíon ar ár gcomhtháthú sóisialta agus ar ár bhfolláine chomh maith.

Is eiseamláir iontach í Féile an Phobail ar an dóigh ar féidir le cultúr ár bpobail a spreagadh agus a cheangal le chéile. Is féile chuimsitheach agus inrochtana í ina mbíonn imeachtaí ar féidir le gach duine sult a bhaint astu – na cónaitheoirí agus na cuairteoirí araon.

Mar an t-aon Chathair Cheoil EOECNA amháin ar oileán na hÉireann, tá an-bhród orainn as ár n-oidhreacht cheoil. Tarraingíonn Féile an Phobail aird ar agus tacaíonn sí le scoth an cheoil agus na hamhránaíochta traidisiúnta. Sin rudaí a bhfuil muid ag súil go mór leo sa tréimhse sula mbeidh an chathair ag óstáil Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann i mí Lúnasa 2026.

Bíonn ról ag a leithéid seo d’fhéilte cuidiú linn ár mianta Chathair Cheoil EOECNA a bhaint amach agus na mílte duine de gach aois agus cúlra a mhealladh chun sult a bhaint as na gigeanna idir mhór agus bheag.

Is féile í seo áfach a chuirfidh níos mó ná ceol ar fáil. Beidh turais, cainteanna, díospóireachtaí, amharc-ealaíona, spórt, litríocht, ceardaíocht agus scannáin ann. Beidh imeachtaí ann ar féidir le gach duine sult a bhaint astu!

Tá súil agam go mbainfidh sibh sult as Féile 37 agus ba mhaith liom gach rath a ghuí ar gach duine a bheidh páirteach inti – an líon mór saorálaithe iontacha san áireamh, ar ndóigh. Ádh mór oraibh go léir.

The Arts Council is delighted to be the principal investor in Féile an Phobail's programme of arts. Féile is one of our major creative and cultural institutions, and it performs such an important role in bringing our communities closer together through our shared enjoyment of arts and entertainment. It is busy throughout the entire year, involving people in Community Engagement and Youth Arts programmes, developing its four community festivals and strengthening partnerships with other cultural organisations across the city and beyond.

All of this endeavour comes into sharp focus in Féile's annual flagship event, the August Festival. With audience figures achieving upwards of 100,000, this is not only Ireland's largest community arts festival, it is one of its most popular and successful. Thanks to the widespread and inclusive pull of the arts, Féile an Phobail welcomes international as well as local audiences and gives everyone the opportunity to share in one of the of the main creative events of the year.

Gilly Campbell, Director of Arts Development, Arts Council of Northern Ireland

Tá ríméad ar an Chomhairle Ealaíon bheith mar phríomh-infheisteoir i gclár ealaíon Féile an Phobail. Tá Féile an Phobail ar cheann dár bpríomhinstitiúidí cruthaitheacha agus cultúrtha, agus bíonn ról tábhachtach aici ár bpobail a thabhairt níos dlúithe le chéile tríd an chomhshult a bhaineann muid as na healaíona agus as an tsiamsaíocht. Bíonn sí gnóthach ar fud fad na bliana. Bíonn daoine páirteach sna Cláranna Rannpháirtíochta Pobail agus Ealaíon Óige. Forbraíonn sí a ceithre fhéile pobail agus neartaíonn sí páirtíochtaí le heagraíochtaí cultúrtha eile ar fud na cathrach agus níos faide i gcéin.

Dírítear na hiarrachtaí seo ar phríomhimeacht bliantúil Féile, Féile an Phobail i mí Lúnasa. Mar gheall ar an líon den lucht féachana agus éisteachta ag breis agus 100,000, ní amháin gurb í seo an fhéile ealaíon pobail is mó in Éirinn í, tá sí ar cheann de na féilte is rathúla agus is mó a bhfuil an-tóir uirthi. A bhuíochas do mhealladh forleathan agus cuimsitheach na n-ealaíon, cuireann Féile fáilte roimh lucht féachana agus éisteachta idirnáisiúnta agus áitiúil araon, agus tugann sí an deis do gach duine comhshult a bhaint as ceann de phríomhimeachtaí cruthaitheacha na bliana.

Go raibh míle maith agat a tom

After more than a quarter of a century leading unforgettable tours of Belfast City Cemetery, this year marks the final time Tom Hartley will guide Féile audiences through the graves and stories that have shaped our city.

One of the original architects behind Féile's resounding growth and success, Tom is a celebrated local historian, author, and former Lord Mayor of Belfast. His political and community leadership has always gone hand in hand with his deep-rooted commitment to the arts, local history, storytelling and showcasing the best of, and often the unknown, tales of Belfast.

For over 25 years, Tom has researched and written the story of Belfast through its burial grounds, bringing the stories of our city's past to life. Tom's unmatched historical insight, political awareness and storytelling has not only educated thousands but has ensured that new generations understand the city's rich, complex, and often overlooked heritage. Through his work, the lives of hundreds of ordinary and extraordinary Belfast citizens, from poets to paupers, to rebels and reformers, buried in our cemeteries have been remembered, revalued, and passed on to new generations.

Féile extends our heartfelt thanks to Tom for his decades of passion, leadership and activism. As he prepares to lead his final cemetery tours, we say, go raibh míle maith agat, Tom.

I ndiaidh níos mó ná ceathrú céid ag déanamh turas dodhearmadta de Reilig Cathrach Bhéal Feirste, seo an bhliain dheireanach a bheidh Tom Hartley ag treorú daoine thart ar na huaigheanna agus ag insint scéalta a raibh tionchar acu ar ár gcathair.

Tá sé ar dhuine de na bunúdair taobh thiar d'fhás agus de rath thar barr Féile. Is staraí áitiúil, údar, clúiteach agus iarArd-Mhéara Bhéal Feirste é Tom. Chomh maith lena cheannaireacht pholaitiúil agus pobail tá a choimitmint dhaingean do na healaíona, don stair áitiúil, do scéalaíocht agus do scothscéalta a bhíonn gan iomrá orthu go minic faoi Bhéal Feirste a insint.

Le breis agus 25 bliain, rinne Tom taighde ar agus scríobh sé faoi stair Bhéal Feirste trína reiligí. Chuir sé beocht sna scéalta faoi Bhéal Feirste san am atá caite. Ní amháin gur chuir léargas stairiúil, feasacht pholaitiúil agus scéalaíocht Tom gan sárú oideachas ar na mílte duine ach rinne siad cinnte go dtuigfeadh na glúnta nua stair shaibhir, choimpléascach na cathrach a ndéantar dearmad uirthi go minic. Trína chuid oibre, tá cuimhne agus ardmheas againn ar shaolta na gcéadta gnáthshaoránach agus saoránach Feirsteach iontach, ó fhilí go bochtáin, go reibiliúnaigh agus leasaitheoirí atá curtha inár reiligí agus tugadh an t-eolas orthu seo do na glúnta nua.

Gabhann Féile ár mbuíochas ó chroí le Tom as na deicheanna bliain dá phaisean, dá cheannaireacht agus dá ghníomhachas. Deir muid go raibh míle maith agat a Tom, agus é ag ullmhú do na turais dheireanacha de na reiligí a dhéanamh.

ACCOMMODATION OR RIGHTS IN A NEW IRELAND

COMHRÉITEACH NÓ CEARTA IN ÉIRINN NUA

ST. MARY'S UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, FALLS ROAD

The advancement of the debate on a border poll has prompted questions about what a United Ireland could mean for unionists. Memories of the alienating effect of partition on minorities in both parts of Ireland have provoked fears of repeating the mistakes of the past and produced arguments for a generous accommodation of unionist identity. Does this obscure a more progressive focus on a rights based approach encompassing all communities in a new Ireland? Andrée Murphy and others will discuss.

IARSMALANN ULADH, BÓTHAR AN tSRUTHÁIN MHILIS

Tá ról tábhachtach ag an Chumann Lúthchleas Gael (CLG) sa tsochaí atá níos mó ná sa spórt. Is minic a dhúisíonn rudaí cuimhne agus eispéiris na ndaoine ar an CLG, boinn a seachadadh ar aghaidh ó ghlúin go glúin, geansaithe a caitheadh i gcluichí ceannais uile-Éireann. Iniúchfaidh Siobhan Doyle rudaí an-spéisiúla agus a scéalta, ar thángthas orthu agus í ag déanamh taighde dá agus ag scríobh a leabhair 'A History of the GAA in 100 Objects'.

AN GHRÚPA UM CHOMHRÁITE BUNREACHTÚLA.: AN BEALACH GO POBALBHREITH AR AN TEORAINN

ST. MARY'S UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, FALLS ROAD

Expectations are growing around the prospects for constitutional change in Ireland. A united Ireland has never looked closer. The scale of the preparatory effort is commendable. There is an understandable focus on planning and preparation, a key theme in our own work. But how will a border poll be triggered? How do we ensure the British Government takes this step? The Constitutional Conversations Group will lead a discussion with Jon Tonge, Colin Harvey, Eilish Rooney and Mark Bassett on achieving a referendum in the North and thus giving people a choice about their own future soon.

COLÁISTE OLLSCOILE NAOMH MUIRE, BÓTHAR NA BHFÁL

Táthar ag súil leis an mhéadú sna féidearthachtaí go mbeidh athrú bunreachtúil in Éirinn. Ní raibh Éire athaontaithe chomh cóngarach riamh. Tá scála na n-iarrachtaí ullmhúcháin inmholta. Tá fócas intuigthe ar phleanáil agus ar ullmhúcháin, eochairthéama inár gcuid oibre féin. Cad é mar a thionscnófar pobalbhreith ar an teorainn áfach? Cad é mar a dhéanfaidh muid cinnte go ndéanfaidh Rialtas na Breataine an beart seo? Beidh an Grúpa um Chomhráite Bunreachtúla i gceannas díospóireachta le Jon Tonge, Colin Harvey, Eilish Rooney agus Mark Bassett ar phobalbhreith a bhaint amach sa Tuaisceart, agus mar sin, ag tabhairt rogha do dhaoine beart a dhéanamh faoina dtodhchaí féin ar ball.

The film places Connolly's radical ideas and many political achievements, against the landscape of the contemporary world while documenting his more prominent role in the 1916 Easter Rising. The film is directed by award-winning Irish film-maker Alan Gilsenan and produced by Martin Mahon of Yellow Asylum Films.

Danny Morrison's updated memoir (2025) is a reflection on family, friends and comrades who have influenced his life—from his childhood in Andersonstown, to his youth in the Falls when 'British soldiers contested our streets and we contested them.' STITCH THEIR NAMES TOGETHER

Each name emerges through needle and thread—50,000 Palestinian lives lost in Gaza since October 2023, transformed from stark statistics into intimate memorial. Mary Evers, an Irish born woman and London based conceived this textile testimony in April 2024, her own family ties to Palestine threading through the work's foundation.

BRUSHSTROKES OF RESILIENCE: ART FROM GAZA - HOPES AND DREAMS BY HADEEL

Amidst the harrowing backdrop of conflict and siege, one woman's art becomes a powerful testament to survival, hope, and unyielding spirit. This exhibition presents a poignant collection of paintings created by an artist trapped in Gaza during the ongoing genocide—a voice that refuses to be silenced. Through vivid colors and raw emotion, her work captures the everyday hopes, dreams, and humanity behind the headlines, offering viewers a deeply personal glimpse into the beautiful heart of Hadeel.

FUAIGH A N-AINMNEACHA LE CHÉILE

Déanfar agus nochfar gach ainm tríd na snáthaidí agus na snáitheanna a úsáidfear. Athraíodh na staitisticí loma de na 50,000 Palaistíneach a maraíodh i nGaza ó mhí Dheireadh Fómhair 2023 agus cuireadh ar an dlúthchuimhneachán seo iad. Smaoinigh Mary Evers, bean a rugadh in Éirinn agus atá lonnaithe i Londain, ar an fhianaise teicstíle seo a dhéanamh i mí Aibreáin 2024. Beidh a ceangail teaghlaigh féin leis an Phalaistín le feiceáil sna snáitheanna atá trí bhunsraith an tsaothair seo.

LÉARGAIS AR AN TEACHT ANIAR: EALAÍN Ó GHAZA - HOPES AND DREAMS AG HADEEL

I gcomhthéacs ghéarchéim coscrach coimhlinte agus léigir, tá ealaín bhean amháin ann mar léiriú cumhachtach na maireachtála, an dóchais agus an mheoin dhiongbháilte. Cuirfidh an taispeántas seo bailiúchán tochtmhar pictiúr i láthair a bhí déanta ag bean atá gafa i nGaza i rith an chinedhíothaithe atá ag dul ar aghaidh. Guth a dhiúltaíonn le bheith ciúin. Trí ghlé-dhathanna agus mhothúcháin ghoilliúnacha, léiríonn a saothar na dóchais agus na haislingí laethúla, agus an daonnacht taobh thiar de na ceannlínte. Tabharfaidh na pictiúirí seo spléachadh an-phearsanta don amharcóir ar uchtach álainn Hadeel.

NEW CASEMENT PARK

A STEP CLOSER

With the recent announcement that the British Government is committing £50m to the redevelopment of Casement, following the Irish Government's investment announced, there is real and tangible momentum towards the delivery of our provincial stadium at Casement Park. We thank both the British and Irish governments for their support, which can help create a lasting sporting and economic legacy.

We know, however, that this is not the final piece of jigsaw and there is much more work to do. Ulster GAA is engaging directly with the NI Executive, the Department for Communities and all stakeholders to agree the final funding package to ensure that the GAA's strategic stadium needs are met and the 14-year commitments to redevelop this flagship project are delivered.

For too long, GAA members, players and supporters in Antrim and Ulster have been left behind with frustrations growing on commitments given but not delivered. There is now growing momentum and belief that a redeveloped Casement Park is a step closer.

We look forward to the project getting started and hosting some of the largest, most exciting and significant games on the island of Ireland. As well as providing a new home for Gaels in the province, the stadium will help deliver wider long-lasting community benefits, socially, culturally and economically.

The redevelopment of Casement is central to the growth of Gaelic games. Antrim's new home will be a seven-day-a-week facility for the GAA community in Belfast, Ulster and throughout Ireland.

Bhí an gá práinneach chun cuidiú leo sin a d'éalaigh ón chogadh uafásach sa tSiria á mealladh ann. Nuair a tháinig siad chonaic siad gur tubaiste dhaonnúil a bhí ann, agus na mílte dubha de dhaoine ag cur a saolta i mbaol ag taisteal ar an fharraige chontúirteach idir an Tuirc agus Lesvos.

From medieval church to the resting place of An Gorta Mór victims, Friar's Bush Graveyard is possibly Belfast's oldest Christian burial site, believed to date back to pre-Christian times. THE FALLS

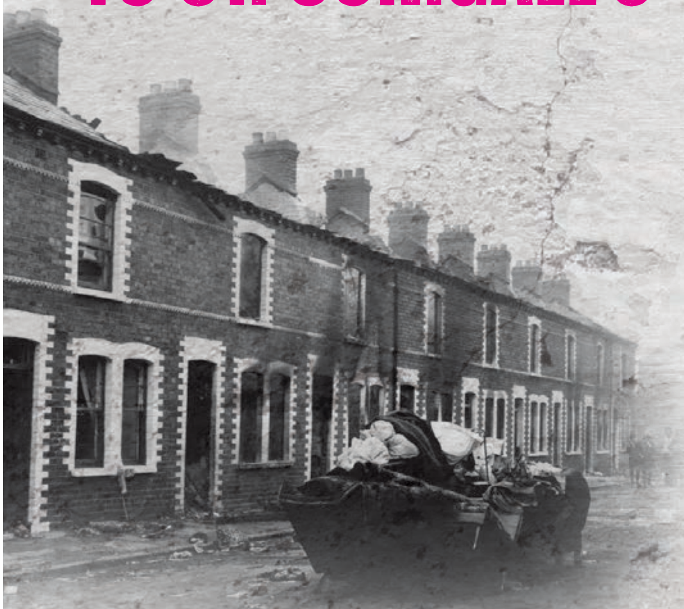
WHERE THE TROUBLES BEGAN

NEW EXHIBITION COMING SOON TO ST. COMGALL'S



St. Comgall's was an accidental eye-witness to the outbreak of conflict on the streets outside the old school. In August 1969, it watched as the Falls was attacked and burned leaving hundreds of families homeless and displaced. There were tragic deaths. The British Army arrived on the Falls and began the longest troop deployment in British military history.

Less than a year later in July 1970, the Army raided the Falls in search of weapons, residents took to the streets in protest, there were riots and more tragic deaths. The Falls was curfewed and residents were confined to their houses by military order. The IRA had been re-awakened. 'The Troubles' had begun. The apparatus of the British military state was installed and conflict was to consume the lives of Falls residents for decades thereafter.

This exhibition is a story of destruction and displacement. A story of rebuilding and renewal. A story as told by the community. A story of the Falls in 1969-70 and how it shaped the future.

The Gardiner Report was presented to the British Parliament in January 1975. It was commissioned by Merlyn Rees on behalf of the Labour Government "to consider what provisions and powers…... are required to deal with terrorism and subversion in the North of Ireland."

Its recommendations included an end to special category status and the construction of a cellular prison i.e the H-Blocks. In effect it was the concept plan for the launch of the British Government's Criminalisation Policy. Seán Murray, Carál Ní Chuilín and Kieron McEvoy will discuss its consequences 50 years on from its launch.

PATRICK MAGEE IN CONVERSATION WITH DANNY MORRISON

PATRICK MAGEE I GCOMHRÁ LE DANNY MORRISON

JAMES CONNOLLY VISITOR CENTRE, FALLS ROAD

While serving a 50 year life tariff for his role in the IRA, Patrick Magee dedicated himself to the study of fiction dealing with the conflict in the north of Ireland. Out of that came his powerful first book, 'Gangsters or Guerrillas?', a deep look at how Irish republicans are portrayed in fiction, and how this has been used as a political tool of British propaganda. In this event, we'll discuss how taking those stories at face value still shapes the way people think about Ireland today, and why that can hold back real progress.

Timothy O'Grady's new novel Monaghan follows the recent reissue of his classic I Could Read the Sky. Inspired by the late Belfast republican Frank Quigley, it follows the fates of three characters—an architectural theorist, an investment banker and an IRA sniper—and takes on big themes—the making of art, the risks of love, war and its consequences, authenticity and selling out. '[O'Grady's] elegant sentences sweeping out across time . . . provide a memorable portrait of the Irish strife of the 1980s,'
- Kevin Barry.

Eisíodh úrscéal nua Timothy O'Grady Monaghan i ndiaidh atheisiúint a úrscéil chlasaicigh I Could Read the Sky. Bhí sé arna spreagadh ag saol an phoblachtaigh Fheirstigh, Frank Quigley, nach maireann. Pléann sé le cinniúintí saoil thrí charachtar — teoiricí ailtireachta, baincéir infheistíochta agus naoscaire IRA. Pléann sé le téamaí móra —ealaín a dhéanamh, rioscaí an ghrá, cogadh agus a iarmhairtí, barántúlacht agus feall a dhéanamh.

CUAIRTEANNA I MBÉARLA LE CARTLANN CHONRADH NA GAEILGE

JAMES CONNOLLY VISITOR CENTRE, FALLS ROAD

Join us for a special night to celebrate Conradh na Gaeilge's campaigns and the Irish language activism spirit of the prisoners. A panel will be discussing the steadfastness of these constantly surpressed activists and they will be sharing stories of their time in the cells. After that there will be a concert in which newly composed songs, inspired by the archive's material, will be performed for the first time. Enjoy a mix of history, language and music as we pay homage to the people who fought from the prisons to preserve the Irish language. This is sure to be a night full of culture, conversation and creativity.

Free event. No booking required.

ÁRAS UÍ CHONGHAILE, BÓTHAR NA BHFÁL

Bígí linn d'oíche speisialta ag ceiliúradh feachtais Chonradh na Gaeilge agus spiorad an ghníomhaíochais Ghaeilge i measc na gcimí. Ar an oíche beidh painéil ag plé le diongbháilteacht na ngníomhaithe seo a cuireadh faoi chois agus ag roinnt scéalta ón gcillín. Ina dhiaidh sin, tumfaimid i gcoirm cheoil ina mbeidh amhráin nuachumtha, agus spreagtha ag ábhar na cartlainne, á gcasadh den chéad uair. Bainigí sult as meascán na staire, na teanga agus an cheoil agus tabharfaimid ómós d'oidhreacht na ndaoine a throid chun an Ghaeilge a chaomhnú ón bpríosún. Is cinnte go mbeidh sé ina oíche lán le cultúr, comhrá agus cruthaitheacht.

PRISONERS' DAY

LÁ NA NIARCHIMÍ

FELONS CLUB, FALLS ROAD

The annual Coiste Prisoners' Day event aims to update its audience on issues important to the ex-POW community.

Doors open at 10:00am for Coiste's new ground-breaking Internment Exhibition.

At 10:30am, Michael Culbert, Director of Coiste, will deliver introductory remarks, followed by a talk exploring the history of internment and its use since partition — including the latest revelations around the deployment of CR gas on Republican POWs in Long Kesh.

This year's focus turns to the ongoing genocide in Gaza and the Occupied West Bank. As part of its efforts to break Palestinian resistance, the Israeli occupation has taken thousands of Palestinians hostage. In highlighting and internationalising this crisis, the 2025 Prisoners' Day will shine a light on the plight of these captives.

Speakers will include Palestinian activists who have played a central role in exposing the torture and brutality faced by prisoners at the hands of their Israeli captors.

Lunch provided.

Free event. No booking required.

CUMANN NA MEIRLEACH, BÓTHAR NA BHFÁL

Bíonn sé mar aidhm ag Lá na nIarchimí bliantúil Coiste an t-eolas is déanaí a thabhairt dá lucht éisteachta ar cheisteanna atá tábhachtach do phobal na n-iarchimí.

Osclófar na doirse ar 10:00r.n. do Thaispeántas ceannródaíoch Coiste ar Imtheorannú.

Ar 10:30r.n., déarfaidh Michael Culbert, Stiúrthóir Coiste, na ráitis tosaigh. Beidh caint ann ina ndiaidh sin a iniúchfaidh stair an imtheorannaithe agus a úsáid ó tharla críochdheighilt, na rudaí is déanaí a tháinig chun solais faoi úsáid ghás CR ar iarchimí cogaidh poblachtacha sa Cheis Fhada san áireamh.

Díreofar i mbliana ar an chinedhíothú leanúnach atá ag dul ar aghaidh i nGaza sa Bhruach Thiar faoi Fhorghabháil. Mar chuid dá n-iarrachtaí frithbheartaíocht na bPalaistíneach a bhriseadh, thóg gabhálaithe Iosrael na mílte Palaistíneach mar ghialla. Léireoidh Lá na nIarchimí 2025 an t-anró atá á fhulaingt ag na daoine seo atá i ngéibheann, agus é ag tarraingt airde ar agus ag idirnáisiúnú na géarchéime seo.

I measc na gcainteoirí ag an imeacht beidh gníomhaithe Palaistíneacha a raibh ról lárnach acu an céasadh agus an bhrúidiúlacht atá na hIosraelaigh atá á gcoinneáil ag déanamh ar na príosúnaigh, a nochtadh.

FÉILE TRAD TRAIL
31st July - 10th August

It's been said that traditional music embodies the spirit of the people of Ireland. Come along to a Féile Trad Trail and you'll find out why!

Take your pick of over 100 free Irish traditional music sessions taking place Citywide in more than 30 venues and enjoy the talents of over 100 of the best Irish traditional musicians from Belfast and beyond.

All sessions on the Trad Trail are free and no booking is required.

Tá domhan an cheoil thraidisiúnta Éireannaigh i mBéal Feirste saibhir agus spleodrach agus is minic a deirtear gurb é spiorad mhuintir na hÉireann é an ceol traidisiúnta. Tar go Chonair Cheoil Thraidisiúnta agus bain sult as cuid de na scothcheoltóirí sa chathair, agus ansin tuigfidh tú an fáth!

Déan do rogha de bhreis agus 100 seisiún ceoil thraidisiúnta Éireannaigh saor in aisce a bheidh ar siúl i níos mó ná 30 ionad ar fud na cathrach. Bain sult as tallainn bhreis agus 100 de na scothcheoltóirí traidisiúnta na hÉireann ó Bhéal Feirste agus ó níos faide ar shiúl.

Beidh na seisiúin uilig den Chonair Cheoil Thraidisiúnta saor in aisce agus ní bheidh áirithint ar bith roimh ré riachtanach.

DIVIS MOUNTAIN COFFEE BARN

The famous Féile an Phobail Poc Fada will make a return to the wonderful setting of the Divis and Black Mountain. A special invite will be sent to all Belfast clubs to nominate a player for each section.

ANEW MCKNIGHT | A ROAD LESS USED

Anew creates art to bring attention to something otherwise considered uninteresting or forgettable - a car park, a broken wall or sometimes just the light reflecting. His work takes on many styles but in the background there is always a longing for the quiet - to find silence in the noise.
Contact: anewmcknight@gmail.com

Cruthaíonn Anew ealaín a léiríonn rud éigin a síleadh go raibh sé neamhshuimiúil nó sodhearmadta chun tosaigh – carrchlós, balla briste nó in amanna rud éigin cosúil leis an solas ag frithchaitheamh. Baineann sé úsáid as a lán stíleanna ina chuid ealaíne, ach sa chúlra bíonn an mhian ann don chiúnas - ciúnas a aimsiú sa challán. Cuir ríomhphost chuig: anewmcknight@gmail.com

LEGACY OF COLONIALISM

Troops that arrived in Derry and Belfast in 1969 were often fresh from other brutal conflicts. It is not surprising that units such as the Parachute Regiment would commit massacres such as Bloody Sunday, Ballymurphy, and Springhill or use waterboarding on detainees, given their record in other conflicts. The first and second battalion of the Paras served in Aden. Senior officers in Cyprus or Aden such as Brigadier Frank Kitson implemented low intensity war tactics here. Every General Officer Commanding the British Army in the North in the 1970s had seen military service in the 'colonies'. Contact: des@patfinucanecentre.org

Ba mhinic a tháinig na trúpaí, a tháinig go Doire agus go Béal Feirste in 1969, go díreach ó choimhlintí brúidiúla eile. Ní mór an t iontas go ndéanfadh aonaid amhail an Reisimint Pharaisiút áir amhail Domhnach na Fola, Baile Uí Mhurchú agus Cnoc Chluanaí nó go mbainfeadh siad úsáid as céasadh le clár uisce ar dhaoine a bhí á gcoinneáil acu, dá gcuirfí na huafáis a rinne siad i gcoimhlintí eile san áireamh. Rinne an chéad agus an dara cathlán den Reisimint sin seirbhís in Aden. Chuir oifigigh shinsearacha sa Chipir nó in Aden, amhail an Briogáidire Frank Kitson taicticí cogaidh ar dhéine íseal i bhfeidhm anseo. Rinne gach Ard-Oifigeach a bhí gceannas Arm na Breataine sa Tuaisceart sna 1970í seirbhís mhíleata 'sna coilíneachtaí' Cuir ríomhphost chuig: des@patfinucanecentre.org

'IN THEIR FOOTSTEPS'

An innovative and moving physical representation of the tragic loss of life during the conflict. Families provide a pair of shoes to symbolise their dead or injured loved one, along with a note and/ or photograph. This campaign aims to put pressure on the British and Irish Governments to find an effective mechanism to deal with the past. The shoes will be displayed in prominent areas allowing members of the public to closely interact and better understand the impact of loss on the families behind the stories. Contact des@patfinucanecentre.org

Mar léiriú fisiceach nuálach agus coscrach de na básanna tragóideacha i rith na coimhlinte thug teaghlaigh péire bróg mar shiombail dá nduine muineartha a maraíodh nó a gortaíodh, chomh maith le nóta agus/nó paragraf. Is í aidhm an fheachtais seo ná brú a chur ar Rialtas na Breataine agus Rialtas na hÉireann meicníochtaí éifeachtacha a aimsiú le déileáil leis an am atá caite. Cuirfear na bróga ar taispeáint in áiteanna feiceálacha chun ligean do bhaill den ghnáthphobal amharc orthu agus tuiscint níos fearr a bheith acu ar éifeacht na mbásanna ar na teaghlaigh taobh thiar de na scéalta. Cuir ríomhphost chuig des@patfinucanecentre.org

HEART OF GAZA
CROÍ GAZA

'HeART of Gaza' is an exhibition of art by young Palestinians, brutally impacted by this genocide. Bear witness to their terror, weariness and loss, but also their determination to cling on to childhood, celebrating friendship, family and life. Make art in response (02/03 August only), to send back to Gaza, transcending borders and language, confirming to the children that we see them and we stand with them.

Is taispeántas ealaíne é 'HeART of Gaza' a bhí déanta ag Palaistínigh óga a raibh tionchar brúidiúil ag an chinedhíothú seo orthu. Tabhar fianacht don scéin a cuireadh orthu, dá dtuirse agus dá dtrioblóidí, ach dá ndíograis le bheith óg go fóill, lena gcairdeas, a dteaghlaigh agus a saolta a cheiliúradh. Déan ealaín mar fhreagairt (02/03 Lúnasa amháin), le cur chuig Gaza. Sáróidh sí teorainneacha agus teangacha, agus dearbhóidh sí do na páistí go mbeidh muid á bhfeiceáil agus go seasfaidh muid leo.

An Exhibition of paintings from troubled Belfast streets 1970s, painted on location and reflecting day to day life. Sketching came naturally to me and I loved to sit and capture the essence of a place. It was a privilege to sit and listen to the children playing and the banter that rang out on the streets. One woman in Vicanage Avenue brought me out a cup of tea and a round of toast.

Michael was awarded 1st Class Hons. from University of Ulster in illustration/visual communication in 1974.

Taispeántas de phictiúir ó shráideanna Bhéal Feirste sna 1970í/80í le linn na dTrioblóidí, a péinteáladh ar an láthair agus a léiríonn an saol mar a bhí ó lá go lá. Bhí féith na sceitseála ann agus ba bhreá liom a bheith i mo shuí agus eisint an cheantair a léiriú. Pribhéid a bhí ann le suí agus le héisteacht leis na páistí ag súgradh agus leis an spórt a bhí ag dul ar aghaidh taobh amuigh ar na sráideanna. Thainig bean amháin ó Ascaill Vicanage amach agus thug sí cupán tae agus píosa aráin rósta dom.
