A chairde,

Fáilte go Féile Lúnasa 2026.

Thirty-eight years ago, a group of dedicated community activists set out with a simple but ambitious vision to celebrate and showcase the talent, resilience, creativity and community spirit of West Belfast through a festival rooted in community pride and participation.

What began as a modest programme of events has grown into an internationally recognised festival that welcomes 120,000 visitors and stands proudly as Ireland's largest community festival. Throughout that journey, Féile an Phobail has remained a beacon of hope and a powerful expression of community confidence, cultural celebration and positive change. Today, Féile is also a vibrant celebration of diversity and multiculturalism, providing an inclusive platform where people from all backgrounds can share their cultures, stories and traditions, building a more connected, welcoming and inclusive Belfast.

This year marks a truly historic moment for Belfast as two of the Island's biggest celebrations of community and culture take place side by side - with Féile an Phobail and Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann promising to be the largest celebration of Irish traditional music, culture and language ever seen on this island.

As always, Féile will offer something for everyone. Outdoor concerts and smaller intimate gigs, discussions and debates, live theatre, visual arts exhibitions, literature, sport, tours, family events, health and wellbeing activities, Irish language programming and traditional music, this year's programme reflects the diversity, creativity and ambition that have become synonymous with Féile an Phobail.

Whether you are attending for the first time, returning as a regular supporter, or visiting Belfast from further afield, I encourage you to immerse yourself in the festival experience. With over 600 events taking place across dozens of venues throughout the city, there is no better opportunity to experience the unique atmosphere, warmth and community spirit that makes Féile so special.

Kevin Gamble, Director, Féile an Phobail

A chairde,

Fáilte go Féile Lúnasa 2026.

Tríocha is ocht mbliana ó shin, bhí fis shimplí ach uailmhianach ag grúpa gníomhaithe pobail díograiseacha tallann, teacht aniar, cruthaitheacht agus meon ár bpobail a cheiliúradh agus a léiriú, trí fhéile a bhunú a bheadh fréamhaithe i mbród agus i rannpháirtíocht an phobail.

Thosaigh sí mar chlár imeachtaí beag ach d'fhás sí go féile atá aitheanta go hidirnáisiúnta agus a chuireann fáilte roimh 120,000 cuairteoir mar an fhéile pobail is mó in Éirinn. I rith na tréimhse sin bhí Féile an Phobail ina héiseamláir dóchais, léirigh sí muinín an phobail go cumhachtach, ceiliúradh cultúrtha agus athrú dearfach. Is ceiliúradh spleodrach ar éagsúlacht agus ar ilchultúrachas í chomh maith. Sa lá atá inniu, tugann sí deis chuimsitheach do dhaoine ó gach cúlra a gcultúir, a scéalta agus a dtraidisiúin a roinnt agus cuireann sí Béal Feirste cuimsitheach, níos ceangailte chun cinn a chuireann fáilte mhór roimh chách.

Is bliain fhiorstairiúil an bhliain seo do Bhéal Feirste mar beidh dhá cheann de na féilte pobail agus cultúir is mó ar an oileán seo, Féile an Phobail agus Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann, ar siúl taobh le taobh. Is cinnte go mbeidh an ceiliúradh is mó ar cheol, ar chultúr agus ar theanga na hÉireann dá mbeidh riamh roimhe ar an oileán seo.

Mar is gnách, beidh rud éigin ann do gach duine. Beidh ceolchoirmeacha allamuigh, dlúthcheolchoirmeacha beaga, plé agus díospóireachtaí, amharclannaíocht bheo, taispeántais amharc-ealaíne, litríocht, spóirt, turais, imeachtaí teaghlaigh, imeachtaí sláinte agus folláine, cláranna Gaeilge agus ceol traidisiúnta. Léireoidh clár na bliana seo an éagsúlacht, an chruthaitheacht, agus an uailmhian a bhíonn inaitheanta le Féile an Phobail.

Má bhíonn tú ag teacht den chéad uair, má thagann tú go rialta nó má bhíonn tú ag tabhairt cuairte ar Bhéal Feirste ó thar lear, molaim duit páirt iomlán a ghlacadh in eispéireas na féile. Beidh breis agus 600 imeacht ar siúl i mbreis agus na dosanacha áit ar fud na cathrach, ní bheidh deis ar bith níos fearr duit sult a bhaint as atmaisféar, as croílucht agus as meon pobail uathúil speisialta Féile.

Kevin Gamble, Stiúrthóir, Féile an Phobail

A LANDMARK EVENT IN BELFAST'S CULTURAL CALENDAR, FÉILE AN PHOBAIL HAS LONG BEEN A SHOWCASE FOR CREATIVITY, COMMUNITY AND CONNECTION. YEAR AFTER YEAR, IT ATTRACTS AUDIENCES FROM ACROSS THE CITY AND BEYOND, INTRODUCING NEW PEOPLE TO BELFAST'S RICH CULTURAL OFFERING WHILE INSPIRING, ENTERTAINING AND BRINGING COMMUNITIES TOGETHER.

A chairde,

Belfast City Council is proud to continue its support for Féile an Phobail, Ireland's largest community arts festival, as it celebrates its 38th year.

As a central part of the cultural diary of Belfast, the Council and the city are rightly proud of this community led festival.

A landmark event in Belfast's cultural calendar, Féile an Phobail has long been a showcase for creativity, community and connection. Year after year, it attracts audiences from across the city and beyond, introducing new people to Belfast's rich cultural offering while inspiring, entertaining and bringing communities together.

As one of our most inclusive and accessible festivals, Féile truly offers something for everyone, welcoming residents and visitors alike to enjoy a diverse and vibrant programme of events.

Having grown up with Féile as an important part of every summer, I am delighted to see it continue to thrive. This year promises to be particularly special as Belfast prepares to welcome more than 800,000 visitors to the 75th Comhaltas Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann, the world's largest celebration of Irish music and culture, from 2-9 August.

As the only UNESCO City of Music on the island of Ireland, Belfast is uniquely placed to host these two iconic celebrations side by side. Together, they will provide an extraordinary showcase of our city's cultural richness and offer unforgettable experiences, music, and craic for all who attend.

My sincere thanks go to everyone who helps make Féile the success it is each year, the organisers, performers, venue staff and, of course, the dedicated volunteers whose commitment and enthusiasm make the festival possible.

Guím gach rath oraibh i mbliana agus tá súil agam go mbaineann sibh uilig sult as Fhéile an Phobail 2026.

Ard-Mhéara Bhéal Feirste,
Councillor Róis-Máire Donnelly

A chairde,

Tá bród ar Chomhairle Cathrach Bhéal Feirste tacú go fóill le Féile an Phobail, an fhéile ealaíon pobail is mó in Éirinn, agus i ag ceiliúradh a 38ú bliain ar an saol.

Mar chuid lárnach den dialann chultúrtha i mBéal Feirste, is ceart go bhfuil an Chomhairle agus an chathair iontach bródúil as an fhéile seo – pobalbhunaithe agus go fóill ag freastal ar an phobal sin bliain i ndiaidh bliana.

Is príomhimeacht Féile an Phobail i bhféilire cultúrtha Bhéal Feirste a chuir cruthaitheacht, an pobal agus naisc chun cinn le fada. Meallann sí a lucht féachana agus éisteachta ó fud fad na cathrach agus ó níos faide i gcéin bliain i ndiaidh bliana. Cuireann sí imeachtaí cultúrtha saibhre Bhéal Feirste i láthair do dhaoine nua agus spreagann sí pobail chun teacht le chéile agus cuireann sí imeachtaí siamsaíochta ar fáil dóibh.

Mar cheann dár bhféilte is cuimsithí agus is inrochtana, is cinnte go mbíonn rud éigin ag Féile do gach duine. Cuireann sí fáilte roimh áitritheoirí agus roimh chuiditheoirí araon teacht agus sult a bhaint as clár imeachtaí éagsúil agus spleodrach.

Tá ríméad orm go mbíonn rath agus bláth uirthi go fóill mar gur fhás mé aníos agus Féile mar chuid thábhachtach den samhradh s'agamsa. Tá mé cinnte gur bliain an-speisialta a bheas ann i mbliana, agus Béal Feirste réidh chun fáilte a chur roimh bhreis agus 800,000 cuairteoir go dtí an 75ú Comhaltas Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann, an ceiliúradh is mó ar cheol agus ar chultúr na hÉireann ar an domhan ó 2-9 Lúnasa.

Mar an t-aon Chathair Cheoil EOECA amháin ar oileán na hÉireann, beidh Béal Feirste díreach réidh an dá cheiliúradh aitheanta seo a óstáil taobh le taobh. Léireoidh an dá imeacht saibhreas cultúrtha ár gcathrach agus cuirfidh siad eispéiris dhodhearmadta, ceol agus craic i láthair do gach duine a bheidh ann.

Ba mhaith liom mo bhuíochas ó chroí a ghabháil le gach duine a chuidíonn le rath agus bláth Féile gach bliain, na heagraithe, na taibheoirí, oibrithe na n-ionad, agus leoga, na saorálaithe díograiseacha a gcuidíonn a gcoimhínt agus a ndíograis le réachtáil na féile gach bliain.

Guím gach rath oraibh i mbliana agus tá súil agam go mbainfidh sibh uilig sult as Féile an Phobail 2026.

Councillor Róis-Máire Donnelly

INDEED THIS YEAR'S COLLABORATION BETWEEN FÉILE AND THE FLEADH CHEOIL NA HÉIREANN 2026, ON ITS FIRST VISIT TO BELFAST, IS ANOTHER EXAMPLE OF THE INCLUSIVE PULL OF THE ARTS THAT WELCOMES INTERNATIONAL VISITORS AND LOCAL AUDIENCES TO OUR CITIES AND TOWNLANDS. WELL DONE ON PROVIDING ANOTHER TERRIFIC PROGRAMME.

The Arts Council is delighted to be the key funder supporting Féile an Phobail's 2026 arts programme. Féile is one of our major cultural events and performs an important role in bringing our communities closer together through our shared enjoyment of the arts and creativity.

Féile staff work across the year, involving people in community engagement events and Youth Arts programmes across four festivals, and I commend them on their engaging partnerships with other cultural organisations and audiences.

Indeed this year's collaboration between Féile and the Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann 2026, on its first visit to Belfast, is another example of the inclusive pull of the arts that welcomes international visitors and local audiences to our cities and townlands. Well done on providing another terrific programme.

Tá ríméad ar Chomhairle Ealaíon TÉ bheith mar phríomh-mhaoinitheoir tacaíochta chlár ealaíon 2026 Féile an Phobail. Tá Féile ar cheann dár bpríomhimeachtaí cultúrtha agus bíonn ról tábhachtach aici ár bpobail a thabhairt níos dlúithe le chéile tríd an chomhshult a bhaineann muid as na healaíona agus as cruthaitheacht.

Oibríonn foireann Féile ar fud fad na bliana. Bíonn daoine páirteach sna himeachtaí Rannpháirtíochta Pobail agus Ealaíon Óige i gceithre féile. Molaim go mór iad as a gcomharpháirtíochtaí le heagraíochtaí cultúrtha agus le luchtanna féachana agus éisteachta eile.

Is eiseamláir eile an comhoibriú seo idir Féile agus Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann 2026, a bheidh i mBéal Feirste den chéad uair i mBlíana, de mhealladh cuimsitheach na n-ealaíon a chuireann fáilte roimh chuairteoirí idirnáisiúnta agus agus roimh luchtanna féachana agus éisteachta áitiúla araon go dtí ár gcathracha agus ár mbailte fearainn. INDEED, AUGUST FÉILE WILL PLAY AN INSTRUMENTAL ROLE IN BUILDING MOMENTUM TOWARDS COMHALTAS FLEADH CHEOIL NA HÉIREANN 2026, GIVING VISITORS AN EXCITING PREVIEW OF THE VIBRANT MUSICAL CELEBRATION THAT WILL BE SHOWCASED THROUGHOUT BELFAST AND BEYOND THIS SUMMER.

Tourism Northern Ireland is delighted to support the 2026 Féile an Phobail August festival.

Established in 1988, the festival has evolved in scale and ambition, continuing to play an important role in showcasing Belfast and Northern Ireland as a compelling and distinctive visitor destination.

The festival remains a key driver of tourism and economic activity, offering visitors an authentic taste of our music, arts, and community spirit.

Indeed, August Féile will play an instrumental role in building momentum towards Comhaltas Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann 2026, giving visitors an exciting preview of the vibrant musical celebration that will be showcased throughout Belfast and beyond this summer.

Together, these events create a powerful draw that will encourage visitors coming to Belfast to extend their stay, explore beyond the city centre, and experience the wider neighbourhoods and communities that contribute so much to our destination's unique character.

I wish everyone involved in this year's Féile the very best of luck in delivering another memorable festival.

Laura McCorry, Tourism NI, CEO

Ó bunaíodh in 1988 í, d'fhorbair an fhéile a méid agus a huaillmhianta. Leanann sí ar aghaidh ról tábhachtach bheith aici Béal Feirste agus Tuaisceart Éireann a chur i láthair mar áit saoire spéisiúil agus ar leith do chuairteoirí.

Is príomhspreagadh i ngníomhaíochtaí turasóireachta agus geilleagracha an fhéile fós a chuireann fíorbhlás dár gceol, dár n-ealaíona agus de mheon ár bpobail i láthair.

Beidh ról lárnach ag Féile, leoga, sa neart a bhailiú i dtreo Chomhaltas Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann 2026. Tabharfaidh sí réamhléiriú iontach do chuairteoirí den cheiliúradh cheolmhar bheoga a chuirfear i láthair ar fud Bhéal Feirste agus níos faide i gcéin sa samhradh seo.

Tarraingeoidh na himeachtaí seo le chéile na cuairteoirí go mór orthu, a bheidh á spreagadh chun teacht go Béal Feirste, fanacht níos faide ann, cuairt a thabhairt ar áiteanna taobh amuigh de lár na cathrach agus ar na ceantair agus ar na pobail i gcoitinne a chuireann go mór le carachtar uathúil ár n-áite saoire.

We are delighted to support the launch of this year's Féile an Phobail, as we continue to invest in our brands, our people, our customers, and the wider community.

Tá bród ar Tennent's NI as a fhréamhacha doimhne in Iarthar Bhéal Feirste, stair a théann siar go dtí ár nasc luatha leis an Ulster Brewery ar Bhóthar an Ghleanna. Tá an-áthas orainn tacaíocht a thabhairt do sheoladh Féile an Pobail na bliana seo, agus sinne ag infheistiú inár mbrandaí, inár muintir, inár gcustaiméirí, agus sa ghnáthphobal go fóill.

Bhí ceangal againn le Féile ón tús, agus bhí muid ag amharc ar an fhás iontach uirthi go dtí an fhéile ealaíon pobail is mó agus is mó áitheanta in Éirinn. Leanann sí ar aghaidh tallann saibhir Iarthar Bhéal Feirste a cheiliúradh agus cuireann sí fuinneamh agus siamsaíocht ar fáil don phobal áitiúil agus do chuartheoirí araon chomh maith le bród orthu go léir.

Tarraingíonn Féile an Phobail aird ar scothmheon cultúrtha Iarthar Bhéal Feirste, meascán uathúil de chruthaitheacht, d'fhéiniúlacht agus de phobal a théann i bhfeidhm ar dhaoine sa chathair agus níos faide i gcéin. Tá bród orainn tacaíocht a thabhairt dá leithéid seo d'imeacht tábhachtach agus rathúil.

Is cinnte go mbeidh gníomhaíochtaí spleodracha sa chlár i mbliana. Beidh Páirc na bhFál mar chroílár cultúrtha na cathrach arís. Ó cheol agus ó cheolchoirmeacha agus taibhithe beo go díospóireachtaí, taispeántais, spóirt agus coiméide, beidh rud éigin ann do gach duine ar féidir leo sult a bhaint as.

Réitíonn ár mbrandaí amhail Tennent's, Magners agus Outcider, go foirfe leis an fhéile. Cuireann siad le hatmaisféar agus le heispéiris chomhroinnte na Féile an-speisialta seo.

CASEMENT PARK

PREPARING FOR THE FUTURE

2026 has seen real, tangible and visible progress on site at Casement Park, as enabling works prepare the stadium for its long awaited redevelopment.

A defining moment in that progress came with the demolition of the stadium's historic stand. Opened in 1953, the stand became an iconic landmark of the GAA in Belfast, hosting over 60 years of club, school, county, provincial and national fixtures. Generations enjoyed many major occasions there, including Ulster finals, with the stand playing a vital role in the sporting, community and social life of West Belfast.

While this marked the end of an era, it also represents the start of an exciting new chapter for the entire GAA family.

The progress made on site to date reflects the continued focus and determination of the project team to move Casement Park's redevelopment forward. We continue to work towards the delivery of a modern, fit for purpose provincial stadium in Belfast, Ireland's second city, that meets the needs of Gaelic games in Ulster.

Casement Park has long been at the heart of Gaelic games in the province. We look forward to it, once again, hosting some of the most exciting and significant games on the island, while providing a new home for Ulster and Antrim and delivering lasting social, cultural and economic benefits for the wider community.

Ulster GAA and Antrim GAA wish to thank the local community, neighbours and members for their patience, understanding and continued support.

CLIFTON HOUSE, 2 NORTH QUEEN STREET

Belfast social reformer Mary Ann McCracken has, in recent years, risen in popular consciousness – thanks in large part to the initiative of Belfast City Council in raising a statue in her honour and to the Mary Ann McCracken Foundation. However, McCracken would probably be relegated to a footnote in the history of Belfast and the United Irish Movement were it not for her biographer, Mary A. McNeill.

Ruth Taillon has recently completed a biography of Molly McNeill. She will talk about Molly McNeill's life and work and her many important contributions to the social, political and cultural life of this island.

Hard Border in Ireland: From Partition to Brexit

The talk explores how the creation of a hard or land border had arguably the largest impact in driving division between North and South, in cementing partition. It looks at how the nature of the border changed in the seventy years of the hard border and how, since Brexit, it became the focus of international attention and scrutiny, over 100 years on from when it was first introduced.

From Wounded Knee to Gaza

This interdisciplinary event brings together Panel Members: Caoimhe Ní Chathail (BBC Broadcaster), J.B. Vallely (Artist), Antaine Ó Donnaille (Filmmaker & Poet) & Azadeh Sobout (Academic and Researcher), to explore themes of resistance, memory and solidarity through art, film and discussion. Centred on the new collection From Wounded Knee to Gaza and an accompanying film, the programme draws historical and political parallels between Native American and Palestinian experiences, examining cultural survival, dispossession and the enduring impact of colonial violence, followed by a panel discussion on the role of creative expression in shaping public consciousness and fostering dialogue.

Thursday 6th August, 5pm, St Mary's University College

THE PASSING OF THE FLAME

The Passing of the Flame tells the story of generations of student teachers – proudly known as the 'Ranchers' – whose passion for Gaelic football helped shape the sporting, cultural, educational and community life of Ulster and beyond. Through a series of striking pop-up visual displays and a complementary digital exhibition, the exhibition traces the enduring connection between St Mary's and the Gaelic Athletic Association (GAA), highlighting the remarkable contribution of its students and alumni to the game at school, club, county, provincial and national level.

Combining historic photographs, archival material and contemporary design, The Passing of the Flame captures the spirit of dedication, camaraderie and community that has long defined Gaelic football at St Mary's. It reflects how the College has not only educated generations of teachers but also helped nurture leaders, volunteers and ambassadors for Gaelic games across Ireland and beyond.

AN EXHIBITION OF PAINTINGS BY J. B. VALLELY 'From Wounded Knee to Gaza'

From Wounded Knee to Gaza presents a powerful and deeply reflective body of work by J. B. Vallely, drawing connections between historical and contemporary human suffering. Through a series of evocative paintings, Vallely explores themes of injustice, conflict and resilience, juxtaposing the legacy of the 19th-century massacre at Wounded Knee with the lived realities of the present-day genocide in Gaza.

Central to the exhibition is a profound meditation on innocence and loss, most notably through the figure of the "little lost bird," inspired by a baby found after the Wounded Knee massacre. Vallely's work seeks to make visible the human cost of violence, challenging viewers to confront uncomfortable truths while also recognising the enduring strength and dignity of those who suffer.

This exhibition is both a visual narrative and a moral reflection - an invitation to witness, to remember and to engage with the universal themes of humanity, justice and hope.

Faigh amach faoi shaol Mary Ann McCracken i mBéal Feirste agus lean lorg an daonfhuascailteora, na daoncharad agus an leasaitheora shóisialta iontaigh seo. Rugadh í breis agus 250 bliain ó shin. Tá saincheangal tábhachtach ag Mary Ann McCracken le cathair Bhéal Feirste. Bhí saol gan eagla aici agus throid sí ar son cúiseanna, agus í ag dul ó áit go háit. Bhí misean aici i gcónaí saol níos fearr a dhéanamh do na daoine sin a bhí ar an ghannchuid. Beidh an turas ag dul go háiteanna a raibh ceangal acu lena saol, leis na rudaí a rinne sí agus lena teaghlach. Tosóidh an turas ag Teach Clifton, mar ar thosaigh coimhlint Mary Ann do chúiseanna daonchaidiúla agus mar ar féidir leat a hoidhreacht a fheiceáil sa lá atá inniu, sula gcríochnóidh an turas cóngarach do Halla Cathrach Bhéal Feirste.

“WHEN THE BOYS CAME OUT TO PLAY”

ST. MARY'S UNIVERSITY COLLEGE,
FALLS ROAD

Set in Belfast and beyond, during the early 1970s, 'When the Boys Came Out to Play' follows twelve-year-old Georgie McDonald as his family is driven from home and his childhood tilts between fear, humour, cultural awakening and the meaning of loyalty. In a vivid local voice, this coming-of-age novel captures exile, survival and the bonds that hold a family together.

Drawn from his own childhood experiences and stories from other 'Refugees' of the time, John Mackel provides an insight into the mind and soul of a young West Belfast boy trying to make sense of his life and identity in a time of turmoil and trauma.

Tá cúrsaí an úrscéil seo suite i mBéal Feirste agus níos faide i gcéin go luath le linn na 1970í agus pléann 'When the Boys Came Out to Play' le Georgie McDonald atá dhá bhliain déag d'aois. Díbrítear a theaghlach óna theach agus tarlaíonn eagla, greann, tuiscint chultúrtha agus ciall na dílseachta le linn a óige. Léiríonn an t-úrscéal theacht in aois seo díbirt, ag teacht slán, agus an dáimh a choinníonn teaghlach le chéile ar bhealach glé soiléir.

Tugann John Mackel léargas ar intinn agus ar anam gasúir óig ó Iarthar Bhéal Feirste atá ag iarraidh ciall a bhaint as a shaol agus a fhéiniúlacht in am achrannach agus trámach. Tagann an léargas seo ó eispéiris a óige féin agus ó scéalta 'teifeach' eile ag an am sin.

THE HARDEST BRIDGE

ST. MARY'S UNIVERSITY COLLEGE,
FALLS ROAD

Can the wounds of war heal? Can enemies reconcile? "The Hardest Bridge" (45mins) focuses those questions through the insights of two remarkable individuals: Jo Berry and Pat Magee. As a fighter with the Irish Republican Army, Pat Magee planted a bomb in the Grand Hotel, Brighton, which killed five people including Sir Anthony Berry MP, father of Jo Berry. Magee was arrested and imprisoned but released under the Good Friday Agreement. Jo went to meet him. Ever since they have been on a transformative journey which has taken them to situations of tension and conflict in many countries.

An féidir gortuithe an chogaidh a leigheas? An féidir le naimhde athmhuintearas a dhéanamh? Dírionn "The Hardest Bridge" (45 nóiméad) ar na ceisteanna sin trí léargais bheirt dhaoine iontacha: Jo Berry agus Pat Magee. Mar throdaí le hÓglaigh na hÉireann, chuir Pat Magee buama sa Grand Hotel, Brighton, a mharaigh cúigear daoine, ina measc, An Ridire Anthony Berry FP, athair Jo Berry. Gabhadh Magee agus cuireadh i bpríosún é, ach scaoileadh saor é faoi théarmaí Chomhaontú Aoine an Chéasta. Bhuaill Jo leis ina dhiaidh sin. Bhí siad ar thuras claochlaitheach ó shin mar a bhfuair siad blaiseadh den teannas agus den choimhlint sa chuid mhór tíortha éagsúla ar thug siad cuairt orthu.

When Séamus Ó Tuama inherited his late father Diarmuid's unfinished manuscript following his untimely death in January 2023 – a history of the nationalist experience in Belfast – he resolved to complete it in his father's memory, weaving together historical narrative with the story of his own family.

Béal Feirste: Belfast transforms the city's turbulent past into a multi-generational account. The work documents the Twomey family's journey from post-Famine economic conscription in rural Cork through the Irish Revolution, Pogroms, Partition, Civil War, the Troubles and Belfast's cultural renaissance as a modern, vibrant urban Gaeltacht.

THE IRISH UNITY PROJECT: MOVING FORWARD OR MOMENTUM STALLED?

ST. MARY'S UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, FALLS ROAD

An 'Ireland Thinks' poll found Irish Unity not among the top 18 issues for the Republic's voters while the Dublin government made clear it's not on their agenda. In the North pro-Unity support appears to rise and pro-union numbers decline. But interpreting those polls is hotly disputed. So what's really going on and how do we make sense of the United Ireland debate today?

Key speaker: Brendan O'Leary

Respondents: Kevin Meagher

Chair: Kevin Rooney

Free event. No booking required

Organised by Irish Border Poll

COLÁISTE OLLSCOILE NAOMH MUIRE, BÓTHAR NA BHFÁL

Léirigh pobalbhreith 'Ireland Thinks' nach raibh Athaontú na hÉireann ar cheann de na 18 gceist is mó i measc vótóirí i bPoblacht na hÉireann agus chuir an Rialtas i mBaile Átha Cliath in iúl go soiléir nach raibh sé ar a gclár oibre. Sa Tuaisceart, is léir go bhfuil an tacaíocht ar son an Athaontaithe ag méadú agus an tacaíocht ar son an Aontais ag laghdú. Is léir go bhfuil easaontas teannasach ann faoin chiall atá le torthaí na bpobalbhreitheanna sin. Mar sin, cad é go díreach atá ag dul ar aghaidh agus cad é mar a bhaineann muid ciall as an díospóireacht faoi Athaontú na hÉireann sa lá atá inniu ann?

MEDIA AND CULTURE IN A NEW IRELAND

ST. MARY'S UNIVERSITY COLLEGE,
FALLS ROAD

Public service media in Ireland is in disarray. It struggles to compete against global rivals, owned and populated by deliberately divisive and inflammatory bad-faith actors. In a united Ireland, such an environment would be disastrous for a new nation and fledgling democracy. Co-authors of a recent report, Stephen Baker and Phil Ramsey alongside Ola Majekodunmi, will discuss what a new democratic public media would mean for culture and politics on the island, and the challenges it would face.

COLÁISTE OLLSCOILE NAOMH MUIRE,

Tá meáin na seirbhíse poiblí in Éirinn ina gcóir tuathail. Tá siad ag streachailt le dul iomaíocht a n-iomaitheoirí domhanda ar le agus ina bhfuil gníomhaithe mí-ionraice atá conspóideach d'aon turas agus atá gríosaitheach. In Éirinn Athaontaithe, bheadh a leithéid sin de thimpeallacht tubaisteach do náisiún nua agus do thír dhaonlathach nuabhunaithe. Pléifidh comhúdair tuarascála déanaí, Stephen Baker, Phil Ramsey agus Ola Majekodunmi, na himpleachtaí a bheadh ann do chultúr agus don pholaitíocht ar an oileán dá mbeadh meáin phoiblí, dhaonlathacha nua ann, agus na dúshláin a bheadh acu.

AND FLOWERS GREW UP THROUGH THE CONCRETE

ST. MARY'S UNIVERSITY COLLEGE,
FALLS ROAD

On 3 October 1981, after 217 days and ten deaths, the hunger strike in the H-Blocks of Long Kesh ended. What happened next? Laurence McKeown, who was on the hunger strike, will be joined in conversation by Deaglán Ó Mocháin (another former republican prisoner) to discuss how the prisoners radically changed their approach to prison struggle from the early 1980s onwards. The change in strategy and tactics did not come without its challenges and much soul-searching, but it led to many successes in subsequent years and the eventual realisation of conditions that more accurately reflected the political nature of IRA imprisonment.

Beidh Laurence McKeown, a bhí ar an stailc ocrais agus Deaglán Ó Mocháin (iarchime poblachtach eile) ag glacadh páirte sa chomhrá seo a phléifidh an dóigh ar athraigh na cimid a gcur chuige maidir leis an streachailt phríosúin go radacach ó go luath sna 1980í ar aghaidh. Ní raibh an t-athrú sa straitéis gan a dhúshláin agus bhí go leor domhainmhacnaimh i gceist, ach ba chúis leis an rath sna blianta ina diaidh agus le fíorú deiridh na gcúinsí a léirigh nádúr polaitiúil phríosúnacht an IRA níba chruinne.

D'athraigh toghcháin 2026 sa Bhreatain Bheag agus in Albain an tírdhreach polaitiúil ar fud na n-oileán seo. Tá triúr Céad-Airí in Éirinn, in Albain agus sa Bhreatain Bheag anois atá ar son an neamhspleáchais.

Bí linn do phlé tráthúil ina mbeidh ionadaithe ó Plaid Cymru, ó Pháirtí Náisiúnta na hAlban (SNP), agus ó Shinn Féin páirteach. Déanfaidh siad iniúchadh ar na deiseanna agus na dúshláin a bheidh ag na gluaiseachtaí bunreachtúla dá ndéanann siad ionadaíocht. Cad é a chiallóidh na torthaí seo maidir le féidearthacht an neamhspleáchais, le dílárú agus le todhchaí na Ríochta Aontaithe, mar a thugtar uirthi? Cad é an tionchar a bheidh ag na firinní polaitiúla athraitheacha ar na straitéisí d'athrú bunreachtúil in Éirinn, in Albain agus sa Bhreatain Bheag?

50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE ENDING OF SPECIAL CATEGORY STATUS

AN 50Ú BLIAIN CHOMÓRTHA DEN DEIREADH A CUIREADH LE STÁDAS CATAGÓRA SPEISIALTA

On 1st March 1976, the British Government ended Special Category Status, decreeing that all political prisoners sentenced thereafter would be treated as criminals under a new prison regime. This policy sought to strip prisoners of political recognition by forcing them to wear prison uniforms, carry out prison labour, and submit to criminal status.

When sentenced on 14th September 1976, Kieran Nugent refused to wear the prison uniform, declaring: "If they want me to wear a uniform, they will have to nail it to my back." His stand marked the beginning of the Blanket Protest and symbolised resistance to the British Government's criminalisation policy outlined in the Gardiner Report.

Seán Murray, Sile Darragh and Kieran McEvoy will discuss its genesis and consequences 50 years on.

Free event. No booking required.

Organised by Féile an Phobail Debates and Discussions Committee

COLÁISTE OLLSCOILE NAOMH MUIRE, BÓTHAR NA BHFÁL

Ar 1 Márta 1976, chuir Rialtas na Breataine deireadh le Stádas Catagóra Speisialta. D'fhógair sé go gcaithfí leis na cimití polaitiúla a ngearrfaí pianbhreith orthu mar choirpigh ina dhiaidh sin faoi réimeas príosúin nua. Bhí an polasaí ag iarraidh aitheantas polaitiúil a bhaint de na cimití agus ag cur iallaigh orthu éidí príosúin a chaitheamh, obair príosúin a dhéanamh agus géillghlacadh le stádas coiriúil.

Nuair a gearradh pianbhreith air ar 14 Meán Fómhair 1976, dhiúltaigh Kieran Nugent an éide príosúin a chaitheamh agus d'fhógair sé: "If they want me to wear a uniform, they will have to nail it to my back." Chuir a sheasamh tús leis an Agóid Pluide agus bhí sé mar shiombail d'fhrithbheartaíocht in aghaidh polasaí coiriúlaithe Rialtas na Breataine ar tugadh achoimre air i dTuarascáil Gardiner.

Mar chuid d'athrú daonlathach na hAfraice Theas a ba chúis le deireadh réimeas na cindeighilte, cruthaíodh Coimisiún Fírinne agus Athmhuintearais nua (TRC) chun tabhairt faoi stair na coimhlinte atá caite. Bhí an tArdeaspag Desmond Tutu ina chathaoirleach air agus reáchtáil sé éisteachtaí poiblí ar fud na hAfraice Theas.

Tríocha bliain níos moille, beidh painéal saineolaithe ón Afraic Theas agus ó Éirinn ag déanamh machnaimh ar oidhreacht an TRC agus ar na ceachtanna a bhí foghlamtha le síocháin a dhéanamh i sochaithe iarchoimhlinte eile.

OUR LIVES, OUR MEDS, OUR HEALTH' HEALTH LITERACY

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE,
FALLS ROAD

Everyone has a right to good health, but in the six counties of Ireland people from poorer backgrounds suffer ill health and die younger, compared to those who are better off. Health inequalities is a term used to refer to the unfair nature of these health differences. Helen McNamee, lead author of CDHN's research 'Our Lives, Our Meds, Our Health' Exploring Medication Safety Through a Social Lens (2023) will discuss same.

COLÁISTE OLLSCOILE NAOMH
MUIRE, BÓTHAR NA BHFÁL

Tá ceart ag gach duine ar shláinte mhaith, ach sna 6 chontae, bíonn sláinte níos measa ar dhaoine ó chúlraí níos boichte agus faigheann siad bás níos óige, i gcomparáid leo siúd atá níos fearr as. Úsáidtear an téarma neamhionannais sláinte chun tagairt a dhéanamh do nádúr éagothrom na ndifríochtaí sláinte seo. Pléifidh Helen McNamee, príomhúdar thaighde an CDHN 'Our Lives, Our Meds, Our Health' Exploring Medication Safety Through a Social Lens (2023)' an cheist seo.

ST. MARY'S UNIVERSITY COLLEGE,
FALLS ROAD

On May 12, 1997, Seán Brown, a devoted father, tireless chairman of Bellaghy GAC and friend of Seamus Heaney was abducted from the club grounds and murdered in a killing his family has always described as state-sponsored. For almost thirty years, his widow Bridie and their six children have waged a dignified campaign against official obstruction for truth and a public inquiry. This is the story of one man's good life, a community's loss and a family's unyielding fight for justice in the long shadow of collusion.

THE CATALPA RESCUE: THE GREATEST ESCAPE IN IRISH HISTORY

TARRTHÁIL CATALPA: AN TEALÚ IS IONTAÍ I STAIR NA HÉIREANN

This year marks the 150th anniversary of one of Irish history's boldest prison breaks. In 1876, a small crew of Irish and American Fenians, masterminded by John Devoy, sailed a humble whaling ship across three oceans to snatch six prisoners from Fremantle Jail right under the British Empire's nose. A thrilling one hour roller-coaster ride of secret plans, huge risks and narrow escapes, powered by "Irish skill and pluck and Yankee grit" told by independent historian Marcus Howard.

Free event. No booking required.

Organised by Friends of Sinn Féin USA

Is í an bhliain seo an 150ú bliain ó tharla ceann de na héaluithe is dána as príosún in Éirinn riamh. In 1876, sheol criú beag Fíiníní Éireannacha agus Meiriceánacha, le planáil ó Joh Devoy, i mbád míolta móra bunúsach trasna trí aigéan chun sé chime a fháil ó Phríosún Fremantle i ngan fhios d'Impireacht na Breataine. Scéal an-chorraitheach uair a 'chloig a bheidh ann ina labharfaidh an staraí neamhspleách, Marcus Howard, faoi phleananna rúnda, rioscaí móra agus éaluithe ar éigean a rinneadh le "Irish skill and pluck and Yankee grit".

Local writer Leslie Wilson was born on the Lisburn Road before moving to Dunmurry. His poems about growing up in the '70s and '80s in Belfast are both lyrical, dark and humorous and include the collections Welcome To My Head, Nothing Makes Sense and Who Would Have Thought.

Held up as a precedent, for all the world to see
How little Ulster saved itself, from a life of misery
We listen to the sound bites; each day's a brand new start
Yet our celebrated peace walls, keep communities apart

Séamas O'Reilly's memoir about his childhood, Did Ye Hear Mammy Died was universally praised for its mixture of grief and loss, dark humour and vivid description of family life in Derry. In his fiction debut, Prestige Drama, Derry is abuzz with news that famous American actor, Monica Logue, has arrived to star in a new Troubles' series, 'Dead City'. When she mysteriously goes missing all eyes are on Diarmuid, the flaky scriptwriter and struggling expat, who was the last to see her alive. The novel brings to life the voices of a community obsessed with, and terrified of, interrogating its past. "Rollicking... caustic, withering and genuinely funny" - Independent. "Disarmingly hilarious" - Sunday Times.

Wendy Erskine is the author of two short story collections Sweet Home and Dance Move. Her most recent work, The Benefactors (Waterstones Irish Book of the Year), is a novel that has garnered huge praise and acclaim. It involves the sexual assault of teenager Misty, trauma, and how parents react, particularly those of her assailants who have the resources to leverage all the powers at their disposal. "A writer of an unrivalled range of imaginative empathy" - Financial Times. "Erskine's great gift is for character. Not a single figure in this novel feels contrived" - Guardian.

Anna Carey is the author of seven acclaimed novels for young adults. Her RTÉ drama podcast 'The Famine Monologues' was aired in 2021 and her play 'The Making of Mollie' was staged in 2024. Love Scene has been described as an 'unputdownable modern screwball comedy.' Annie McDermott has landed her dream job as a writer for a TV soap. However, someone is out to sabotage the show and Annie is determined to fight back. "Utterly delicious - I couldn't stop reading this" - Marian Keyes. "With plenty of steam alongside the soap, Love Scene is a novel full of hope and heart" - Irish Times.

FROM WOUNDED KNEE TO GAZA Ó WOUNDED KNEE GO GAZA

This event presents a powerful interdisciplinary exploration of resistance, memory, and solidarity through art, film and discussion. Centred on the new collection "From Wounded Knee to Gaza" by Brian Vallely and an accompanying film by Antaine Ó Donnaille, the programme draws compelling historical and political parallels between the experiences of Native American communities and the Palestinian people.

Through visual art and cinematic storytelling, the works interrogate themes of dispossession, cultural survival, and the enduring impact of colonial violence. The screening will be followed by a panel discussion examining the contemporary political context, the ethical responsibilities of artists, and the role of creative expression in shaping public consciousness and fostering solidarity.

Positioned within Féile's long-standing tradition of cultural activism, this event invites audiences to reflect critically on global struggles for justice and the transformative potential of art in times of conflict. It aims to create a space for dialogue, empathy, and deeper understanding across histories and geographies.

Free event. No booking required.

Déanfaidh an t-imeacht seo iniúchadh cumhachtach idirdhisciplíneach ar fhrithbheartaíocht, ar chuimhní agus ar dhlúthpháirtíocht trí ealaín, scannáin agus plé. Déanann an clár comparáid stairiúil, polaitiúil agus spéisiúil idir eispéiris na bpobal Meiriceánach Dúchasach agus eispéiris mhuintir na Palaistíne agus é dírithe ar an bhailiúchán nua, "From Wounded Knee to Gaza" ag Brian Vallely agus ar an scannán atá leis ag Antaine Ó Donnaille.

Léiríonn na saothair na téamaí amhail díshealbhú, marthanas cultúrtha, agus tionchar leanúnach an fhoréigin choilínigh trí mheán na hamharc-ealaíne, agus trí scéalaíocht scannánaíochta. Beidh plé painéil ann i ndiaidh an léirithe a iniúchfaidh an comhthéacs polaitiúil comhaimseartha, freagrachtaí eiticiúla na n-ealaíontóirí, agus ról an léirithe chruthaithigh sa tionchar ar thuiscint an phobail agus ar dhlúthpháirtíocht a chur chun cinn.

Mar chuid de thraidisiún seanbhunaithe Féile de ghníomhaíochas cultúrtha, iarrfaidh an t-imeacht seo ar an lucht féachana machnamh criticiúil a dhéanamh ar na streachailtí domhanda chun ceart agus cóir a bhaint amach agus ar acmhainneacht bhunathraitheach na healaíne ina amanna coimhlinte. PRISONERS'
DAYLÁ NA
NIARCHIMÍ

FELONS CLUB, FALLS ROAD

The annual Coiste Prisoners' Day returns with a focus on the 50th anniversary of the ending of political status and the beginning of the prison protests.

Running from 10:00am to 1:00pm, the event will explore the political, social and historical impact of the British Government's decision to withdraw political status on 1 March 1976. Danny Morrison will open proceedings by outlining the political context surrounding the change in policy and its significance.

A series of panel discussions will then examine the experiences of those directly affected. Former prisoners will reflect on the atmosphere and conditions in Crumlin Road Gaol and Armagh Gaol following the withdrawal of political status, the opening of the H-Blocks, the increasingly repressive regime in Armagh and the conditions endured as the situation deteriorated and protests escalated.

Family members will discuss the initial confusion surrounding the policy change and the gradual growth of public awareness and support. Former activists and relatives will also reflect on the organisation of protests and demonstrations across Ireland and the growing international attention focused on the prison struggle.

The event will conclude with a discussion on the wider impact of the prison protests and hunger strikes, including their significance within the broader struggle, the emergence of Sinn Féin's electoral strategy and the enduring legacy of the prison protests for future generations.

Lunch will be provided.

Free event. No booking required.

FALLS ROAD

In 1982 Anne Cadwallader had just been posted from England to the BBC in Belfast and was on night duty when she took a call from the RUC who said three men had been shot dead as they 'broke through a police roadblock.' It was a lie, part of the shoot-to-kill cover-up. A lie that stayed with Anne for decades, inspiring her 2026 legal/political thriller, Crossing Over. In conversation with Danny Morrison, Anne will talk about her life and journalism, her work on legacy, and her earlier books, Holy Cross and Lethal Allies.

Free event. No booking required.

Organised by Féile an Phobail Debates and Discussions Committee

'A haunting blend of legal intrigue, political tension, and romance, Crossing Over is a raw, authentic exploration of morality in a world where the most dangerous enemy is the truth itself.'

BÓTHAR NA BHFÁL

In 1982, cuireadh Anne Cadwallader ar phost sa BBC i mBéal Feirste ó Shasana agus bhí sí ar dualgas oíche nuair a ghlac sí le scairt ghutháin ón RUC a dúirt gur scaoileadh triúr fear chun báis mar gur 'bhris siad trí bhloc bóthair na bpóilíní.' Bréag a bhí ann, a bhí mar chuid d'fhorcheilt lámhaigh agus maraigh. D'fhan an bhreag sin in intinn s'aicisean leis na deiceanna de bhlianta agus a bhí mar spreagadh di a leabhar scéinséara dhleathaigh/pholaitiúil, 'Crossing Over', a scríobh in 2026. Labharfaidh sí faoina saol agus a hiriseoireacht, faoina cuid oibre ar stair agus faoi na leabhair níba luaithe a bhí scríofa aici, 'Holy Cross' agus 'Lethal Allies' i gcomhrá le Danny Morrison.

Ó REIBILIÚNAÍ GO FATHACH NA GCEARDCHUMANN: SCÉAL MIKE QUILL

ÁRAS UÍ CHONGHAILE, FALLS ROAD

Transport Workers Union International President John Samuelsen and historian Lorcan Collins discuss the remarkable journey of Mike Quill, from IRA volunteer to one of New York City's most formidable labour leaders. Despite fierce opposition from employers, Quill played a central role in building the Transport Workers Union, organising workers across ethnic, religious and racial divides and earning the nickname "Red Mike". This talk explores how his efforts advanced workers' rights and shaped a legacy that continues to resonate within the union he established today.

Pléifidh Uachtarán Idirnáisiúnta na nOibrithe Iompar, John Samuelsen, agus an staraí, Lorcan Collins, saol iontach Mike Quill, ó óglach IRA go duine de na ceannairí lucht oibre ab'iontaí i gCathair Nua-Eabhrac. In ainneoin na géarfhreasúrachta ó fhostóirí, bhí ról lárnach ag Quill i bhforbairt Cheardchumann na nOibrithe Iompair. D'eagraigh sé oibrithe ar fud na ndeighiltí eitneacha, reiliginacha, agus ciníocha agus tugadh an leasainm "Red Mike" air. Pléifidh an chaint seo an dóigh ar chuir a iarrachtaí cearta oibrithe chun cinn agus ar a raibh tionchar aige ar oidhreacht atá ábhartha sa lá atá inniu sa cheardchumann a bhunaigh sé.

FALLS ROAD

When the Irish Boundary Commission was established in 1924 the British government had already established the basis for partition. The King's formal launch of the Northern regime in June 1921 came three years earlier. James Craig was already in place as Prime Minister and a parliament had been elected. Dr. Costello will focus on how the machinations behind the Empire's attempt at a 'Final Settlement' in Ireland proved nothing of the sort.

Díreoidh an Dr. Costello ar an dóigh nár éirigh leis an scéiméireacht a bhí taobh thiar d'iarrachtaí na hImpireachta 'Socrú Deireanach' a dhéanamh in Éirinn.

MEETING POINT: ENTRANCE OF BELFAST CITY CEMETERY

Belfast City Cemetery contains graves of individuals from backgrounds whose lives are woven through the fabric of the Belfast story. The tour reminds us that the political and cultural identity of 19th century Belfast was complex and layered; it upends stereotypes and provides a fresh approach to the history of Belfast. The tour will include two unique features in that we will have a rare viewing of an opened section of the underground wall and access into the gated Jewish burial section of the cemetery.

Tickets: £8 pay at gate with exact change

Cuirfidh an turas i gcuimhne dúinn go raibh féiniúlacht pholaitiúil agus chultúrtha Bhéal Feirste i bhfad níos coimpléascaí agus níos srathaithe go mall sa 19ú céad. Iompóidh an turas seo na seansteiréitíopaí ar gach dóigh agus léireoidh sé cur chuige úr maidir le stair Bhéal Feirste. Sa turas seo beidh dhá ghné uathúla ann. ÁIDÁN Ó MANACHÁIN

MO CHUID EALAÍNE

Aidan paints elements of our local natural environment and its remarkable people (musicians, poets etc). Working in oil paint allows the artist to work intuitively with the medium as the art piece evolves. It stimulates the artist's creativity and imagination – exploring concepts, colour, composition and texture.

Contact: aidanart@outlook.com

Péinteálann Aidan gnéithe dár dtimpeallacht nádúrtha áitiúil agus a daoine iontacha (Ceoltóirí, filí srl.). Ligeann sé don ealaíontóir, agus é ag úsáid péinte ola, obair iomasach a dhéanamh leis an mheán sin, agus an píosa ealaíne á fhorbairt. Spreagann sé cruthaitheacht agus samhlaíocht an ealaíontóra. Baineann sé úsáid as coincheapa, dathanna, comhdhéanamh agus uigeacht.

BALLYMURPHY MASSACRE CAMPAIGN EXHIBITION

Ballymurphy Massacre Families came together in 1998 following a Féile event organised by Relatives for Justice entitled The Forgotten Victims. This exhibition documents the families' long campaign to raise awareness of the killings in August 1971 and clear the names of their loved ones. Through photographs, speeches, press statements and news reports, it traces the journey from grassroots activism to the landmark inquest findings declaring all victims "entirely innocent", alongside the families' powerful Patchwork of Innocence quilt.

Tháinig Teaghlaigh Ár Bhaile Uí Mhurchú le chéile in 1998 i ndiaidh imeacht Féile a d'eagraigh Gaolta um Cheartas dar teideal 'The Forgotten Victims'. Léireoidh an taispeántas seo feachtas fada na dteaghlach le daoine a chur ar an eolas faoi na maruithe i mí Lúnasa 1971 agus le hainmneacha a ndaoine muinteartha a ghlanadh. Trí ghrianghrafanna, óráidí, preasráitis agus tuairiscí nuachta, rianóidh sé an stair ó ghníomhaíochas na cosmhuintire go torthaí cinniúnacha an fhiosrúcháin a dhearbhaigh go raibh na híospartaigh uilig 'go hiomlán neamhchiontach', taobh le cuilt Phíosála Neamhchiontachta chumhachtach na dteaghlach.

AN EXHIBITION OF PAINTINGS BY J. B. VALLELY FROM WOUNDED KNEE TO GAZA

Born in Armagh in 1941, artist J.B. Vallely has built a remarkable career spanning more than six decades. Educated at Blundell's Grange National School, where his father served as headmaster, Vallely sold his first painting at just seventeen years old. His reputation grew rapidly, with eight of his works selected for the Irish display at the 1963 World Fair in New York. By 1968, The Irish Times described him as "one of the more exciting Irish painters under 30." Over the course of his career, Vallely has produced around 4,000 works, participated in numerous group exhibitions, held 38 solo exhibitions, contributed to major art collections, and received more than 250 awards.

His latest exhibition, From Wounded Knee to Gaza, is a powerful and deeply emotional exploration of human suffering, injustice and resilience. Through a series of striking paintings, Vallely draws connections between the 19th-century massacre at Wounded Knee and the contemporary devastation in Gaza, reflecting on the enduring impact of violence and oppression on indigenous peoples.

Central to the exhibition are two haunting symbols of innocence caught in conflict: Zintkala Nuni, or "Little Lost Bird," a baby who survived the Wounded Knee massacre, and Hind Rajab, a five-year-old Palestinian girl killed in Gaza after desperately pleading for rescue. Vallely uses these stories to humanise the victims of war and challenge viewers to confront the realities of displacement, dehumanisation and loss, while also recognising the dignity and resilience of those who endure unimaginable suffering.

Taking place on Thursday 6th August at 5pm, a special discussion event will examine the themes explored within From Wounded Knee to Gaza, bringing together artists, filmmakers and academics to reflect on justice, memory, resistance, and the role of creative expression in times of conflict.

In association with ST. MARY'S University College – Celebrating 125 Years in the Community.

Rugadh J.B. Vallely in Ard Mhacha in 1941, agus tá gairm bheatha iontach aige le breis agus seasca bliain. Chuaigh sé ar Scoil Náisiúnta Blundell's Grange, mar a raibh a athair ina phríomhoide inti. Dhiol sé a chéad phictiúr agus nach é ach seacht mbliana déag d'aois. Tháinig ardú gasta ar a chlú nuair a roghnaíodh ocht gcinn dá shaothair don taispeántas Éireannach ag Aonach Domhanda 1963 i Nua-Eabhrac. Faoin bhliain 1968, rinne The Irish Times cur síos air mar "one of the more exciting Irish painters under 30." Bhí thart ar 4,000 saothar déanta aige, ghlac sé páirt i gcuid mór taispeántas grúpa, bhí 38 taispeántas aonair aige, chuir sé le príomhbhailiúcháin ealaíne agus bhain sé 250 duais, le linn a gairme beatha.

Is iniúchadh cumhachtach agus mhórmhothúcháinach ar fhulaingt, ar éagóir agus ar theacht aniar an chine dhaonna a thaispeántas is déanaí, From Wounded Knee to Gaza. Trí shraith phictiúr suntasach, déanann Vallely naisc idir an t-ár ag Wounded Knee sa naoú haois déag agus an léirscios atá á dhéanamh i nGaza. Déanfaidh sé machnamh ar éifeacht an fhoréigin agus an chos ar bolg leanúnach ar dhaoine dúchasacha.

Ag croílár an taispeántais tá dhá shiombail dhodhearmadta de neamhchiontach a bhí gafa i gcoimhlint: Zintkala Nuni, nó "Little Lost Bird," leanbh a mhair an t-ár ag Wounded Knee, agus Hind Rajab, cailín Palaistíneach chúig bliana d'aois a maraíodh i nGaza i ndiaidh dí impí go himníoch ar tharrtháil. Baineann Vallely úsáid as na scéalta seo chun na híospartaigh cogaidh a dhéanamh níos daonna agus dúshlán na n-amharcóirí a thabhairt chun tabhairt faoi fhirinní an díláithrithe, an dídhaonnaithe agus an bháis agus chun aitheantas a thabhairt do dhínit agus do theacht aniar na ndaoine sin atá ag fulaingt go huafásach fós.

Beidh an t-imeacht seo ar siúl Déardaoin 6 Lúnasa ar 5i.n. agus déanfaidh imeacht díospóireachta speisialta iniúchadh ar na téamaí a léireofar sa taispeántas ina dtiocfaidh ealaíontoirí, déantóirí scannán agus acadóirí le chéile chun machnamh a dhéanamh ar cheartas, ar chuimhní, ar fhrithbheartaíocht, agus ar ról an léirithe chruthaithigh in amanna coimhlinte.

THE PASSING OF THE FLAME

The Passing of the Flame tells the story of generations of student teachers – proudly known as the ‘Ranchers’ – whose passion for Gaelic football helped shape the sporting, cultural, educational and community life of Ulster and beyond. Through a series of striking pop-up visual displays and a complementary digital exhibition, the exhibition traces the enduring connection between ST. MARY’S and the Gaelic Athletic Association (GAA), highlighting the remarkable contribution of its students and alumni to the game at school, club, county, provincial and national level.

Combining historic photographs, archival material and contemporary design, The Passing of the Flame captures the spirit of dedication, camaraderie and community that has long defined Gaelic football at ST. MARY’S. It reflects how the College has not only educated generations of teachers but also helped nurture leaders, volunteers and ambassadors for Gaelic games across Ireland and beyond.

Presented during Féile an Phobail 2026, and at a moment when the region looks forward to the future with the redevelopment of Casement Park, the exhibition offers a timely opportunity to celebrate the deep roots of Gaelic games within the community and the role ST. MARY’S has played in sustaining and enriching that legacy.

The Passing of the Flame honours the past, celebrates the present and looks to the future – ensuring that the proud tradition of Gaelic football at ST. MARY’S continues to inspire for generations to come.

In association with ST. MARY’S University College – Celebrating 125 Years in the Community.

Léireoidh ‘The Passing of the Flame’ scéal na nglúnta de mhic léinn faoi oiliúint mhúinteoireachta – ar tugadh na ‘Ranchers’ go bródúil orthu – a raibh an-dúil acu sa pheil Ghaelach a raibh tionchar aici ar shaol spórtúil, oideachais agus pobail Chúige Uladh agus níos faide i gcéin. Trí shraith tob-fisthaipeántas suntasach agus taispeántas digiteach taobh leis, rianóidh an taispeántas an ceangal leanúnach idir Coláiste Ollscoile Naomh Muire agus an Cumann Lúthchleas Gael (CLG), agus díreofar aird ar an méid iontach a chuir a mhic léinn agus a alumnais leis an chluiche ar leibheál scoile, club, agus ar an leibheál cúige agus náisiúnta.

Léireoidh ‘The Passing of the Flame’ meon na díograise, na comrádaíochta agus an phobail a leag amach cad is peil Ghaelach ann i gColáiste Ollscoile Naomh Muire le fada, tríd na grianghrafanna stairiúla, na hábhair cartlainne agus an dearaidh chomhaimseartha a bheidh ann. Léireoidh sé an dóigh ar chuir an Coláiste oideachas ar na glúnta de mhúinteoirí agus ar chuidigh sé le ceannairí, le saorálaithe agus le hambasadóirí a chothú do na cluichí Gaelacha ar fud na hÉireann agus níos faide i gcéin.

Tabharfaidh an taispeántas seo, a chuirfear i láthair ag Féile an Phobail 2026 ag am nuair a bheidh an réigiún ag súil leis an todhchaí agus le hathfhorbairt Pháirc Mhic Ásmaint, deis thráthúil chun ceiliúradh a dhéanamh ar fhréamhacha doimhne na gcluichí Gaelacha laistigh den phobal agus ar an ról a bhí ag Coláiste Ollscoile Naomh Muire an stair agus an oidhreacht sin a chothú agus cur leo.

Tabharfaidh ‘The Passing of the Flame’ onóir don am atá caite, ceiliúrfaidh sé an t-am sa lá atá inniu, beidh sé ag súil leis an todhchaí agus déanfaidh sé cinnte go spreagfaidh traidisiún bródúil na peile Gaelaí i gColáiste Ollscoile Naomh Muire na glúnta de mhic léinn atá le teacht.

UNITED CAMPAIGN AGAINST PLASTIC BULLETS

PLASTIC AND RUBBER BULLETS – DEADLY / LETHAL WEAPONS

Founded over 40 years ago by Emma Groves and Clara Reilly, the group campaigns for a ban on plastic bullets and similar weapons. Emma lost her sight after being shot, while many others, including children, were killed. The group continues their legacy today. In 2026, it marks the 40th anniversary of the annual White Line Picket at Groves Reilly Corner.

Bhunaigh Emma Groves agus Clara Reilly an grúpa seo breis agus 40 bliain ó shin, agus bíonn sé i mbun feachtais ar son cosc a chur ar philéir phlaisteacha agus ar airm cosúil leo. Chaill Emma a radharc ó scaoileadh í, agus maraíodh cuid mhór daoine eile, páistí ina measc. Leanann an grúpa ar aghaidh lena n-oidhreacht go fóill sa lá atá inniu. In 2026, is í seo an 40ú bliain ó thosaigh an Picéad Líne Báine bliantúil ag Coirnéal Groves Reilly.

BÓTHAR NA BHFÁL

Inspired by Palaeolithic artefacts, this three-dimensional body of work considers the hand-made marks left by Homo sapiens. Modelled in porcelain and stoneware clay by hand, the ceramic bodies retain vitrified anatomical imprints. Fragments of shell, flint and stone debitage are interwoven into some of the pieces. These have been retrieved from the floor of the Bann Estuary and Lough Foyle at low tide, connecting the viewer with Ireland's ancient history. The receptacles feature engraved cryptic messages and texts bound up within paper scrolls. Sealed behind glass, these curated, mixed-media displays represent hidden knowledge.

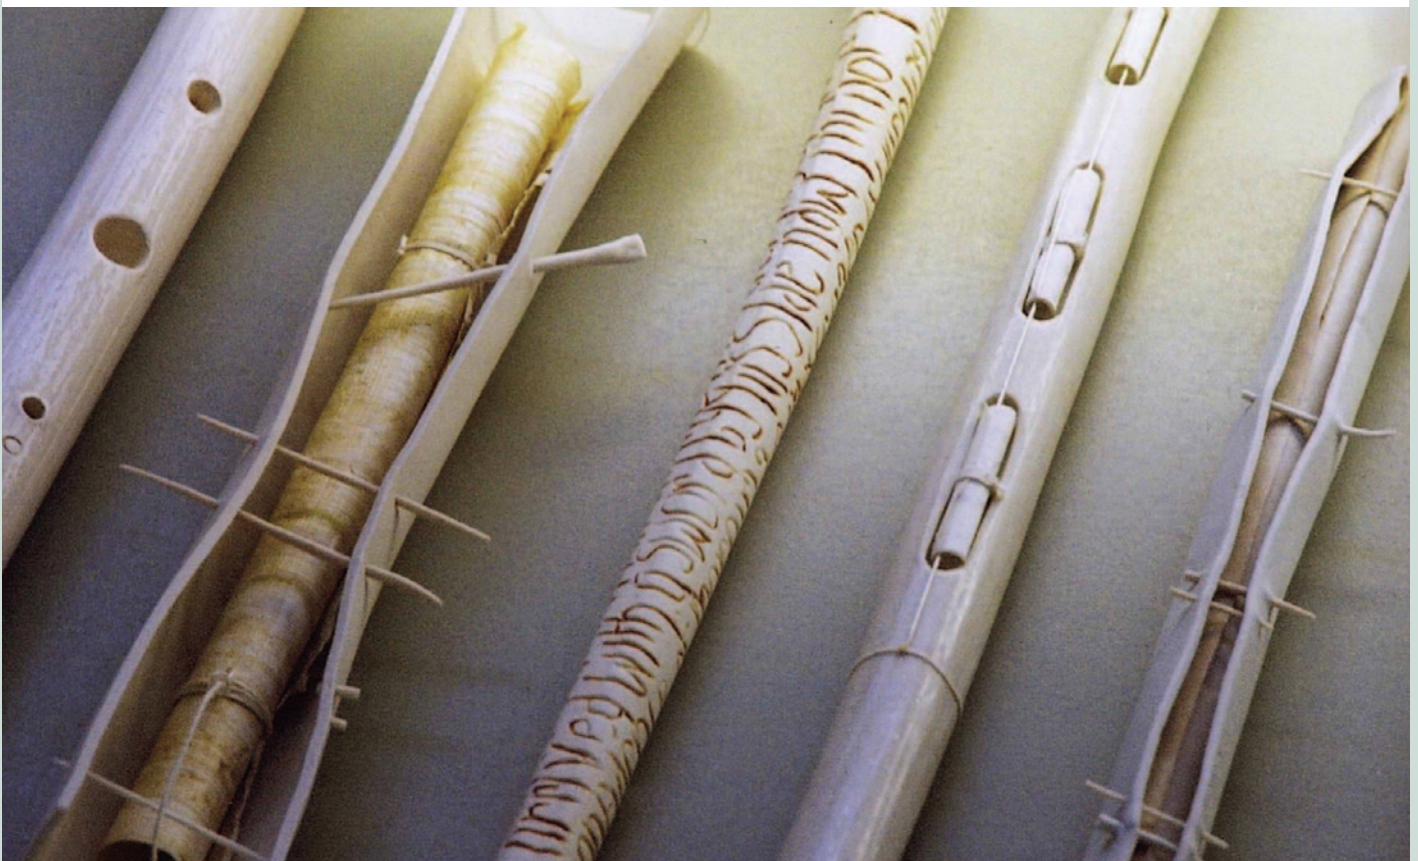

Free event.

Léiríonn an saothar tríthoiseach seo, arna spreagadh ag déantáin Phailéiliteacha, na marcanna a bhí lámhdhéanta ag Homo sapiens. Bhí siad lámhdhéanta de phoirceallán agus de chruachré agus coinníonn na coirp cheirmeacha na loirg anatamaíochta ghloinithe. Tá bloghanna de shliogáin, de bhreochloch agus d'fhuíollábhair chloiche fite fuaite i gcuid de na píosaí. Fuarthas iad ó bhun Inbhear na Banna agus Loch Feabhail le lag trá, mar sin, ceanglaíonn siad an t-amharcóir le seanstair na hÉireann. Ar na coimeádáin tá teachtaireachtaí agus téacsanna cripticeacha greanta atá ceangailte taobh istigh de scrollaí páipéir. Tá siad séalaithe ar chúl gloine agus léiríonn na taispeántais choimeádta ilmheán seo eolas ceilte.

Imeacht saor in aisce.
